for the 2009-2010 school year
at California State University, San Bernardino

World Language Instruction for Today's Students: Focus on the New World Language Standards

Tier 1A - Standards-based Instructional Practices for Foreign Language and ELL Teachers

For teachers of all languages and ELL this workshop focuses standards-based instructional practices that develop students' proficiency with a wide variety of strategies that really work to keep today's students actively engaged and in the target language. It is a workshop of effective, classroom-tested, ready to use strategies to reach and teach diverse student populations. It includes demonstrations, examples, and video clips. ~~University Hall, Room 264~~ Room change: College of Education CE 107

Tier 1B - Using Stories to Enhance Standards-based Foreign Language and ELL Instruction

For teachers of all languages this workshop will include highly motivational and engaging storytelling strategies to develop language proficiency. Participants will learn the easy steps to accelerate proficiency through a variety of inputs, reading, and stories in your classroom. It includes emphasis on standards-based approaches that are effective and classroom-tested strategies to reach and teach diverse student populations. Pre-requisite: Tier 1A or equivalent. ~~University Hall, Room 264~~ Room change: College of Education CE 107

Tier 1C - Standards-based Instructional Practices For Teachers of Spanish Speakers

Based on the new world language standards, this workshop will address the development of reading, writing, and critical thinking skills of our Spanish-speaking students. It is a workshop of effective and classroom-tested strategies to reach and teach diverse student populations of Spanish speakers. Participants will learn engaging activities that can be used in the classroom immediately with little preparation. ~~University Hall, Room 264~~ Room change: College of Education CE 107
